A MESSAGE FROM OUR BELOVED ALMA MATER

*H*AVE you ever wondered what it is like to be a school? Well, say it's Monday morning. After a whole weekend of silence, it is pretty cruel to be jolted suddenly by a shrieking bell. Then I get my first glimpse of the eager faces of the D.C.H.S. students. THAT'S EAGER? There is a burst of chatter, a clang of lockers, and a stampede of feet heading for homerooms. Another bell...quiet again...Here comes a late sleeper. The attendance secretary gets a visitor, who hasn't come to see her at all but just to get a tardy slip. Another bell sets the ball rolling for the hard grind of the morning classes. Such comments as "We just had a doozy of a History test," "Do you have a topic for your term paper?" and "My goodness, an explosion in the Chemistry lab," can be heard as the students pass from class to class. At eleven fifty-eight comes the big rush. The California Gold Rush had nothing on my students when it is time to eat. After lunch I can hear comments such as, "I simply can't do this math," "Wasn't that a beautiful song we sang in Girls' Glee Club?", and "Did you hear the violinist who was flat all period in Orchestra?" Finally the day comes to an end with the sounding of another bell. Oh, well, this one brings peace. As the last sound of chatter, slamming of lockers, and rushing feet dies away, I settle down to rest until it is time to rise and house my students again.

*T*HIS is your story. The purpose of this book is to preserve those precious memories so easily forgotten with the passage of time. I trust that as you recall your four years at Dansville Central High School, you will be reminded of your responsibilities. The responsibility of contributing to a world harassed by international problems. The responsibility of not only continually striving to increase your skills and abilities, but to achieve higher goals....growth of character, an appreciation of personal success and ambition, analysis of personal motivation, and a broadened outlook. You leave us with confidence....with a real understanding that the world needs your contributions. You have much to accomplish.

We will live our lives apart, but we are knitted together with friendship and loyalty to our school.

History

BEFORE we close the door on the best years of our lives, we would like to put in writing, as a permanent record, a few of the events that have made these years memorable.

As Freshmen, we elected Don Quibell to be our President, Jack Kiehle, Vice-President, Norma Furst, Secretary, and Marjorie Conklin, Treasurer. Our major project of the year was our sweater dance which was an overwhelming success.

Our Sophomore year found William Carpenter as President, Donald Quibell as Vice-President, Phyllis Banker as Secretary, and Paul Moore as Treasurer. Our movie benefit was the highlight of the year, owing to the fact that we hit an almost perfect sales record, leaving only two tickets unsold. Our sale of coke and our sweater dances gave our treasury a good start for our Senior Trip.

We were led through an extremely successful Junior year by Donald Quibell in the roll of President, Charles Wolf as Vice-President, Lois Kiefer, Secretary, and Merrilee Kiehle, Treasurer. Our sponsorship of the Faculty Play, "You Can't Take It With You" offered us enjoyment and experience, as well as boosting our treasury. Sweater dances and our Pre-Prom-Prance set the pace for our social highlight of the year, our Junior Prom, where we answered the age-old question, "How Deep Is The Ocean?"

As we embarked on our last year in D.C.H.S., our Senior year, we chose as our leaders Don Hall, President; Merrilee Keihle, Vice-President; Norma Furst, Secretary; and Don Quibell, Treasurer. Our first major project was our magazine drive, where we broke all D.C.H.S. sales records by obtaining a total of $6,005.75 in subscriptions. Next came our Senior Play, "The Little Dog Laughed," starring Donna Luce and directed by Miss O'Neil. Our advertising for the play won us first prize in the Halloween parade. Without time to relax we became engrossed in the annual picture project of individual shots of each student and Danua photos.

As Christmas approached, so came the time for our Senior Ball with its theme "Silver Bells." Norma Furst and Harold Gibson were chosen as royalty to preside over the affair. After Christmas vacation we began in earnest, work on our Danua. For the next two months the Staff headed by Jane Mader worked feverishly to publish a memorable yearbook. With the yearbook at the printers, and Easter vacation close at hand we became excited about our Trip. With a wonderful Washington trip behind us, we began to settle down and think of the nearing goal of the Best Years of our lives--Graduation.

As we don our caps and gowns to leave the security of our Alma Mater, we wish to express our gratitude to our advisors, Miss Magavero, the Faculty and all of the wonderful people who have helped us reach our goal.

Class Motto: Never stand begging for that which you have the power to earn.

Senior Advisors

Last Will and Testament.

We, the members of the Senior Class of Danaville Central High School in the County of Livingston and State of New York being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this our last Will and Testament, in manner following that is to say:

Item I. We bequeath to Mr. Bradley, Mr. Covert, the faculty and board of education, our deepest gratitude for their help and co-operation during our high school career.

Item II. To the Class of 1955, we leave our cherished balcony seats and distinctive blue report cards.

"Poodles" Mader leaves her ability to get into every project offered at D.C.H.S., to anyone with strong nerves and capability.

Don Hall leaves his powerful voice and fine leadership to next year's Senior Class president.

Anita McDowell and Cindy Price leave jobs well done and a year of great achievements as leaders of our student council.

Keith Wilcox leaves his pleading expression and worn out question, "Anyone got any ad money?", to next year's advertising manager.

Our hot-rodders, Wolf, Binkley, Kreiley, Weaver, Derrenbacher and Harter, leave empty parking spaces to anyone with a car.

Barb Witherell and Flossie Holbrook leave their outstanding athletic abilities to June Wadams.

Romeo Anderson, Casanova Pruner, and Don Juan Fries leave their "lines" to unpoetic fellows who want to win a girl.

Our Ag boys Englert, Luce and Jaeger, leave their minstrel talent to Mr. Moder's gang.

Annie Lallemand and Jeannie Boyd leave their cheerleading ability and wonderful school spirit to Carol Lang and Joyce Boyd.

Jack Bartles leaves his teacher-tantalizing ability to Nicky Argenti.

Our handy men, Al Slack, Randy Rawleigh and Paul Moore, leave their hammers, saws, and bandages to the gang in next year's shop class.

Ruthie Burger, Issie Mott, Lizzie Pressler and Dutch Coombs, leave their burned pots and jammed sewing machines to next year's homemakers.

Our brides to be, Bev Brown and Harriet Kemp will their technique to all of the forlorn females in D.C.H.S.

Poopsie Kiehle leaves his harem to Gene Larrin.

Janet Lanphier and Johanne Gray will their ability to mess up Chemistry experiments to Joyce Holbrook.

Our high strutters Norm Furst, Kinks Greer, and Barb Kennedy leave their dented batons to the up and coming majorettes; and their classy leader, Nancy Sahrle, leaves her big red plume to the next year's head twirler.

Donna Luce leaves her acting ability to the leading lady in next year's Senior Play.

Pennie Holbert, Alberta Button and Marie McLane leave their ice cream dipping jobs to anyone who likes cold hands.

Our professionals Barry Haywood, Jim Rauber and Don Quibell bequeath the borrowed dance band equipment to the music department.

Jo Doyle, Gerry Bachman and Harold Mess leave their worn-off paint brushes and pencil stubs to Jo Hulbert.

Rhoda Van Derwerken, Dixie Rawleigh, Loie Kiefer and Cork Bedford leave their devotion for Secretarial Practice to next year's secretaries.

Phyl Banker leaves a worn-out pair of lungs to next year's Gamma Sigma Kappa president.

Maurie Gilbert wills his Toni Kit to Schultzie Pruner.

Chickie Murphy leaves her unpredictable liveliness to Margie Fuhrman.

Our lighting experts Dick Leven and Bill Wallace leave their clever ideas and wonderful effects to Terry Sutfin.

Evvie Frew, Carol Howe, Merrilee Kiehle, Helen Lauffer, Roberta Kemp, Elaine Reed, and the two men of the class, Roddie Huber and Larry Whiteman, leave their beaten-up office practice machines to the Juniors in the Business Dept. (hope you have better luck than we did).

"Mert" Dilgard and Margie Conklin willingly give their "run down" writing talent to any Junior with a strong constitution.

THE big event of the Junior Year, the Junior Prom, was held this year on May 7. Everyone danced in "Moonlight and Roses," this being the theme. We made good financial progress toward the Senior Trip after sponsoring paper drives, sweater dances and a magician's show. High School Intramurals

“*I*NTRAMURAL” is derived from the Latin words “intra” and “murus” meaning “within walls.”

Competition seems to be engrained into the makeup of the people of today. One may compete against oneself, another or others. One may compete alone, or with a group or team. So in our sports of today we have various types of competition for participants.

One of these types of competition for girls is shown in the Intramural program in Dansville Central. The program tries to offer various types of sports: team and individual, outdoor and indoor, some strenuous and others of a less strenuous nature. An effort is being made to appeal to the interest of as many of the students as possible.

To give a brief summary of what intramurals are, one might merely say it's a follow-up to regular gym classes, inasmuch as during regular gym classes, instructions are given and the activities are learned. Then, for the enjoyment of the girls interested in “playing the activities” intramurals are offered, where any student may participate regardless of ability for the fun and the recreational benefits.

Intramurals offered in Dansville coinciding with our seasonal periods are:

Soccer
Field Hockey
Bowling
Basketball
Volleyball

Recreational Games
Tennis
Archery
Softball

WE'RE DONE!

"We're done!" was the cry that exhausted these three.

"Our book is completed at last.

"Our worries and trials and gnashing of teeth

"Are now a thing of the past.

"But before we collapse and take to the hills,

"Our thanks we would like to convey

"To all those who helped with the book and the bills,

"And sent the Danua once more on its way."
